KYRGYZSTAN

Two women, Aziza and Jibek, were abandoned by their families because of their Christian faith. Aziza was 17 years old when she was kicked out of her home. A church helped her by allowing her to live rent-free in the church building until she completed high school. Jibek, who is in her late sixties, broke her back in a fall. She moved to another part of the country for treatment. Although she is bedridden, she now has the freedom to listen to Christian services. However, when Jibek's family members heard that pastors have been ministering to her, they cut off all contact with her. Pray that the Lord's mercy and grace will help to sustain these two believers in their time of need (Heb 4:16).

Believers / Church: Pray that believers will continually commit their lives, future, and anxieties to the Lord, with absolute confidence that He will not fail, forsake, or disappoint them in their deepest hour of need (Ps 25:1-3).

Nation: Pray that whenever the Word of God is preached, it will convict many people in this nation to repent of their sins, seek forgiveness and receive salvation in Christ (Heb 4:12).

YEMEN

In early 2026, more than 50 Christians, including pastors and church leaders, were arrested and imprisoned without any formal charges. Pastor Jon, whose story was featured in The Voice of the Martyrs' August 2023 magazine, is one of the imprisoned believers. He had been incarcerated several years earlier and his life was threatened behind bars. This time he initially faced some health issues, but his health has since improved. Pray that these believers will continue to trust the Lord and remain firm in their faith. Pray that they will be shining testimonies for Christ in all circumstances, leading many people to turn to Christ for eternal salvation. Pray for their release.

Believers / Church: Pray that the Lord will empower believers to bless those who persecute them. Pray that they will not repay evil with evil or insult with insult, but they will repay evil with blessing so that they may inherit God's blessings (1 Pet 3:9).

Nation: Pray that many people in this nation will listen to the gospel message with an open heart and choose to follow Jesus.

VIETNAM

On 5 August 2026, a court in Vietnam's Dak Lak province sentenced a Montagnard Christian, Pastor Y Nuen Ayun, to seven years and six months in prison for "undermining the policy of national unity" by organizing and leading unregistered religious activities since 2003. Pastor Ayun leads the Central Highlands Evangelical Church of Christ which was set up with the help of a Vietnamese pastor, A Ga, who resides in the United States. The Vietnamese government alleged that Pastor Ga advocates for separatist movements and has classified him as a terrorist. Pray for strength and protection for Pastor Ayun during his imprisonment. Pray for his vindication and early release.

MYANMAR

Pastor Sang Te was accused of having connections with resistance groups and arrested by Myanmar military authorities on 16 September 2021. He received a 23-year prison sentence even though Christian leaders insisted that Pastor Sang was not involved in armed activities but was simply serving Christ and helping people in need during a time of national suffering. He has been in prison for four years. During this time, he shared the gospel freely among male inmates and 60 prisoners have come to faith in Christ. Pray that the Lord will strengthen and sustain Pastor Sang. Pray for peace, comfort and provision for his family and congregation. Pray for his early release.

Believers / Church: Pray that as believers diligently obey God's commandments and abide in His love, they will be fruitful, filled with an overflowing joy and receive whatever they ask the Heavenly Father in the name of Jesus (John 15:9-16).

Nation: Pray that the Lord will shine the light of truth on those who live in spiritual darkness (Isa 9:2) such that they will turn from their wicked ways, seek forgiveness and receive eternal life and hope from the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHINA

For 30 years, Zhang Mei served as a lay leader in house churches across Yueyang, Hunan Province. Zhang and her daughter, Li Dixuan, are now living in Texas, where Li married an American citizen. They applied for asylum in the United States but Chinese authorities repeatedly contacted Zhang to demand that both mother and daughter return to China where Zhang's husband remains. This ongoing harassment comes days after coordinated police raids against house churches in Yueyang. Pray that believers who seek refuge outside of China will experience God's peace, protection and loving care as they attempt to rebuild their lives in a new country. Pray that Zhang and Li will receive the asylum they seek.

Believers / Church: Pray that the church in China will not be afraid, fainthearted, or terrified of those who are persecuting them, for the Lord will go with them to defeat their enemies and give them victory.

Nation: Pray that God will intercept and destroy every strategy and plan of the enemy to destroy the church and the lives of believers.

On 26 July 2026, a mob stormed into a Christian gathering in a home in Chararoypur Majer Para village in West Bengal and physically assaulted the believers. The angry mob also destroyed Bibles, hymn books and other religious items. In a separate incident on 31 July, a man accused the pastor of Grace Community Church in Sandeshkhali of receiving foreign funding and given a seven-day ultimatum to leave the region. Pray that these believers' hearts and minds will be in perfect peace, in spite of hard times, because they purposefully and consistently focus their thoughts on Jesus and the truths in His Word (Isa 26:3).

Believers / Church: Pray that as Christians delight in and meditate day and night on God's law, they will stand firm against persecution, be fruitful and prosper in every aspect of their lives (Psalm 1).

Nation: Pray that many people in this nation will be delivered from the power of darkness and turn to Christ for redemption through His blood and the forgiveness of sins (Col 1:13).

LIBYA

Ten Libyan Christians were arrested in 2023 after a member of the secret police, posing as a sympathizer, reported on their Christian activities. They have been imprisoned since 2025 on charges of "insulting religious sanctities and conducting rituals using the internet" and for living out their Christian faith. A Libyan court will soon consider their appeal against their sentences of three to five years. Pray for God's mercy, strength and protection to be upon these believers. Pray for a favourable outcome at the appeal hearing leading to their early release. May they find favour in the eyes of fellow inmates and guards such that they will be treated kindly during their time in prison.

Believers / Church: Pray that as believers endure the fiery trials of persecution, they may be afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed (2 Cor 4:8-9).

Nation: Pray that God will open the eyes of those who are persecuting Christians, so that they may turn from darkness to light, receive forgiveness for their sins and salvation in Christ (Acts 26:18).
